

Greetings!

CASA of the Continental Divide is seeking volunteer advocates to join their training starting January 10, 2019 in Idaho Springs. The 8-week training will take place each Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. at the Clear Creek Recreation Center from 6:00-9:00 p.m. CASA volunteer advocates serve abused and neglected children in Clear Creek, Eagle, Lake and Summit counties and help children pursue safe and permanent homes. Please help CASA of the Continental Divide by distributing the training announcement in your community! Distribute to family, neighbors, friends, employees, constituents, customers... consider volunteering yourself!
