

If you were on free and reduced at the end of last school year, you are grandfathered in for 30 days from the beginning of this school year. If you have not received a letter stating that you are qualified for free and reduced; you have to re-apply before the 30 days is over or on the 31st day you will have to pay for breakfast and lunches.